tion may be decided by the result of the congressional elections in Virginia this year. Certainly the political complexion of the next House of Representatives may be Democratic as a result of the successful Richmond. resistance which Mr. Massey's friends made last winter to the effort to gerrymander this State. The difference between having from Virginia eight Republican members and eight Democratic members in the next House of Representatives might follow the success of Mr. Massey's legisla- gospel. tive friends last winter, important and farreaching as these consequences would be. Work! Work! Work!

But four weeks will elapse between now and the election-day. Four weeks may seem to be a short time, yet much effective work may be done during that period. Nay, much effective work will be done if the Democrats of Virginia are in earnest in their war upon Boss and Bossism,

Work for Massey's election because Manone and all his followers are working against it. Learn from the enemy. The man to defeat whom Mahone would sacrifice his congressional candidates in all the districts is John E. Massey. Why! Is it because Massey's a Democrat now as he was in 1880, when he voted for Hancock? If so, that is a most excellent reason why all Democrats ought to support him. Is it because Massey's friends detected that the Democrats of Ohio expect to gain two congressmen in Hamilton county, (that is, both away where they might neither molest). The more was he was to be a short time, yet much three of those States—much in Ohio, less in three of those States—much in Ohio, less in three of those States—much in Ohio, less in the work of Mr. Henry Arbogast, who lives about two miles west of New Hampden, Crab bottom, went out into the woods several days ago to pick berries, accompanied by trict is the only doubtful one; and in that the days ago to pick berries, accompanied by trict is the only doubtful one; and in that the delegation from West Virginia.
